

Open the phase_2 directory in vs code.

In vs_code terminal go to extension and install live server extension. Then you will see bottom right go live option. Click it then the tool will open.

If you double click the javascriptTool.js file it will not get the css and javascript file. Because all css and js and html file in different folders. to run that way have to keep html,css,js in a single file